ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On June 30, 2015, the Court directed any party who wished to do so to file a letter justifying any proposed redactions to the papers filed in connection with the Government's motion to re-open fact discovery for a limited purpose. (Docket No. 243). Substantially for the reasons explained in Wells Fargo's July 10, 2015 letter, Wells Fargo's request to redact portions of the memoranda of law and to maintain several deposition excerpts and exhibits under seal (Docket No. 251 at 3-4) is GRANTED, as the documents contain confidential information regarding Wells Fargo's business strategy.

Accordingly, within one week of the date of this Order, the parties shall publicly file — under seal, in redacted form, or unredacted, as the case may be — all necessary documents that have not already been filed. They shall also file with the Sealed Record Department all documents to be filed under seal or in redacted form.

SO ORDERED.
